

NEW ZEALAND EARTHQUAKE

NEW ZEALAND just faced a series of severe earthquakes nearby Christchurch and causing severe shaking in the capital Wellington.

Christchurch is unharmed and our colleagues over there are fine, but the area between Christchurch and Blenheim was badly affected with a lot of road and rail closures, as well as problems in Wellington, and we have to wait to see how this will affect transport links and shipping.

More to read:

- <http://www.nzherald.co.nz>
- <http://www.usatoday.com>